

FINCANTIERI

BAY SHIPBUILDING

Fabrication Machine Operator—Press Brake: This position is responsible for working with heavy machinery from setup to operation at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Environmental Health & Safety Coordinator: This position is responsible for supporting the Environmental Health & Safety function at our vast, 63-acre facility. Significant heavy manufacturing takes place both in several fab shops, as well as on the waterfront. The successful candidate will support the 1,000+ working men and women on our waterfront by passionately pursuing innovative and effective safety solutions that focus primarily on employee well-being, manufacturing efficiency, and environmental awareness.

Safety Manager: This position is responsible for leading the Environmental Health & Safety directives at our vast, 63-acre facility. Significant heavy manufacturing takes place both in several fab shops, as well as on the waterfront. The successful candidate will support the 1,000+ working men and women on our waterfront by passionately pursuing innovative and effective safety solutions that focus primarily on employee well-being, manufacturing efficiency, and environmental awareness.

Facilities Technician: This position is responsible for maintaining the good condition and functionality at our vast, 63-acre facility. Significant heavy manufacturing takes place both in several fab shops, as well as on the waterfront. The successful candidate will support the 1,000+ working men and women on our waterfront by being a thorough professional with a practical mind and attention to detail.

LCS Fabricator: This position is responsible for erecting and fabricating of the Freedom-Class Littoral Combat Ship at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Structural Engineering Manager: This position is responsible for assisting in defining Contract Requirements as relating to Structural Engineering and pertaining to all acquired Ship Design and Build Projects at our vast, 63-acre facility. Significant heavy manufacturing takes place both in several fab shops, as well as on the waterfront. The successful candidate will support the 1,000+ working men and women on our waterfront by defining department resources needed to meet Structural Engineering Department commitments; coordinating Department personnel to achieve said commitments; communicating with Project Management on a regular basis to assure that the resources needed to assure project goals and objectives are maintained.

Engineer I: This position is responsible for solving technical problems, developing applicable 3D models & associated documentation, and supervising all assigned resources to support the assigned project at our vast, 63-acre facility. Significant heavy manufacturing takes place both in several fab shops, as well as on the waterfront. The successful candidate will support the 1,000+ working men and women on our waterfront by assisting the Senior Engineers and Project Engineers in determining the technical requirements of the project, defining resource requirements to achieve schedule and budget commitments, and solving technical issues as they arise within the field of competence.

Program Manager: This position is responsible for working with customers to inspire project conception, owning oversight of all related build strategy, ultimately ensuring on-time and on-budget delivery, and full-cycle maritime programming at our vast, 63-acre facility. The Program Manager will oversee a staff of 2-6 Project Managers and Project Engineers. Boasting a diverse portfolio of active contracts ranging from commercial repair, repowering's and conversions, to commercial and military new construction, the Program Manager is uniquely and strategically positioned to drive our organizational Vision: to revolutionize the way our customers operate by delivering quality maritime solutions that redefine what is possible.

Carpenter: This position is responsible for operating carpentry equipment to assist in building parts of interior and exterior of ships, and shipyard buildings at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Pipefitter: This position is responsible for pipefitter equipment, parts, interiors and exteriors of ships, and shipyard buildings at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Painter: This position is responsible for painting equipment, parts, machinery, interiors and exteriors of ships, and shipyard buildings at our vast, 63-acre facility. The successful candidate will also remove old paint to prepare surface prior to painting, and mix colors or oils to obtain desired color or consistency.

Electrician: This position is responsible for electrical equipment, parts, interiors and exteriors of ships, and shipyard buildings at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Outside Machinist: This position is responsible for machinery equipment, parts, machinery, interiors and exteriors of ships, and shipyard buildings at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Welder: This position is responsible for welding equipment, parts, interiors and exteriors of ships, and shipyard buildings at our vast, 63-acre facility.

Supervisor Skilled Trades — Outside Machinist: This position is responsible for supervising and coordinating all machinery department activities and schedules at our vast, 63-acre facility. Significant heavy manufacturing takes place both in several fab shops, as well as on the waterfront. The successful candidate will support the 1,000+ working men and women on our waterfront by performing the following duties.