

Field Service Technicians

Job Summary

Optima Machinery Corporation's Field Service Technician position supports one of the Optima Divisions (Pharma, Nonwovens, Consumer, Life Science) in a service role pertinent to the operations of that division.

A readiness to travel of up to 75% is expected.

Responsibilities and Duties

Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

- Performs service and maintenance of OPTIMA equipment sold in the United States
- Travels to customer sites to install, maintain, inspect and repair OPTIMA equipment
- Installs, maintains, repairs both mechanical and electrical systems and components on OPTIMA machinery following blueprints, electrical codes, schematics, and manuals, both at customer sites and in-house
- Installs wiring and conduit and connects power supply to machine
- Assists with in-house assembly and related activities
- Follows instructions and duties as requested by supervisor
- Valid Driver's License is required

Qualifications and Skills

- Fulfillment of the Electro-Mechanical program at a two year school required
- Electrical education a plus
- Training will be provided on Optima Machinery

Benefits

Optima Machinery Corporation is an equal opportunity employer. We offer competitive wages and benefits such as health/dental/life/disability insurance, 401k match and profit sharing, flexible hours and much more! We provide a casual business environment and promotes the growth of its employees.