

Welder

Job description

- Experience in Manufacturing Industry
 - Mechanically inclined
 - Highly motivated with strong work ethic and attention to detail
 - Trade tech is looking for quality conscious people who will handle and process high value materials
 - Working welding position with 2-3 years of welding experience
 - If experience requirements are not met, you will work as a welder helper, with position progression available if performance is at a high level
 - Trade Tech welds fabrications for mining, nuclear and petroleum industries under various codes including AWS D1.1, 1.6 and 14.1 as well as ASME section 8 and 9
 - Welding is usually thicker plate and larger structural with FCAW or GMAW
 - Projects are varied and unique or low volume, as are tasks, and welders are expected to understand technical drawings, procedures, specifications, and work instructions, fit, and fabricate as required
 - Applicants should show progressive experience and responsibility, previous certification to AWS D1.1 or other, and experience working with formal weld procedures, work instruction and inspection
-
- Job Type: Full-time