

BPM Inc. - Mechanical Engineer Lead

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist with the day-to-day operations by providing direction which will include prioritization of tasks.
- Assist in the development of the millwrights and electrical and instrumentation craftsmen.
- Seek, recognize, define and solve problems to achieve unit objectives. Resolve complex technical issues to determine the root cause.
- Develops and manages predictive and preventative maintenance programs.
- Manages the operation of the boiler house.
- Perform all job responsibilities in a safe manner. Develop equipment training and processes that meet safety codes, policies, and guidelines.
- Assist in the development and implementation of production and maintenance downtime planning.
- Create a strategic vision for the capital investment needs of the assets.
- Lead Planning and Project Management of capital projects to improve process reliability, safety, and overall operation of the assets. Also responsible for contracted manpower scheduling. This includes the development and orientation of company-required work practices.
- Use effective communication skills regarding technical issues across all plant operations.
- Work with external technical service providers, construction management providers, and sourcing and supply vendor partners.
- Provides weekend maintenance management coverage on a rotation basis.
- Will be a member of the SQF team.

Qualifications / Experience:

- Bachelors in Engineering preferred. In lieu of a degree, a minimum of 5 years of relevant experience may suffice.
- Minimum of two years of experience in an engineering role with a variety of technical or operational assignments, including demonstrated leadership in achieving results.
- Strong experience with mechanical and/or electrical processes and equipment.
- Demonstrated ability to lead cross-functional teams to achieve project results within required timeframes.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office programs.
- Experience working with external technical service providers.
- Strong interpersonal and leadership skills
- Ability to influence others and lead small teams