

Physical Therapist

About Us:

Paramount Physical Therapy and Training provides high-end physical therapy and training experiences to clients and businesses with the purpose of helping people unlock life's experiences through movement. We are dedicated to providing high-quality care in a cash-pay orthopedic setting, emphasizing bespoke services and unmatched care in a five-star casual environment. But at Paramount we are so much more than just the services we offer; we are a lifestyle brand that revolves around quality, community, and authenticity. Thus our vision far exceeds the limits of our doors, as we seek to help individuals and businesses achieve their wildest dreams.

Job Description:

We are seeking a self-motivated and self-starter Physical Therapist with a passion for health, wellness, and orthopedics. The ideal Physical Therapist is knowledgeable in exercise prescription, skilled in manual therapy, and familiar with the psychology of pain. This role requires an individual who thrives in an independent environment, can build & manage a diverse caseload, and is passionate about helping clients achieve their full potential.

Key Responsibilities:

- Physical Therapists conduct comprehensive assessments and develop individualized treatment plans for patients with orthopedic conditions.
- Develop and deliver workshops to groups of people with the goal of building a caseload and identifying a niche population to work with.
- Regularly engage in authentic relationship-building in the community through outreach events.
- Utilize a variety of manual therapy techniques and exercise prescriptions tailored to the client's specific needs.
- Physical Therapists educate patients on pain management, integrating knowledge of pain psychology into treatment plans.
- Work in a cash-pay environment, providing high-quality, personalized care without the limitations of insurance constraints.
- Collaborate with other healthcare professionals and trainers to support a multidisciplinary approach to wellness.

- Engage with the community, fostering Paramount's brand of health and wellness through educational workshops, events, and other initiatives.
- Maintain accurate and timely documentation of patient progress and outcomes.

Qualifications:

- Doctorate in Physical Therapy (DPT) from an accredited program.
- Licensed to practice Physical Therapy in Wisconsin.
- Strong knowledge of exercise prescription and rehabilitation techniques.
- Proficiency in manual therapy techniques (e.g., joint mobilizations, soft tissue work, dry needling, joint manipulation).
- Understanding of pain psychology and how it affects rehabilitation and recovery.
- Self-starter with excellent communication and time-management skills.
- Experience working in a cash-pay or private-pay setting is a plus but not required.

Why Join Paramount Physical Therapy and Training?

- Community-Driven: Be part of a growing community that is passionate about health and wellness.
- Bespoke Approach: Work in a setting that values personalized care and integrates different aspects of physical and mental well-being.
- Autonomy: Operate in a flexible, patient-centered, cash-pay environment that allows you to offer the best care without insurance limitations.
- Growth Opportunities: Contribute to a rapidly growing lifestyle brand with opportunities for professional growth and development.
